Members of the Intellectual Property and Computer Law Journal organization will be enrolled in one of the following:

IPCL JOURNAL: ASSOCIATE EDITOR (all students who are not members of the Editorial Board)

- Course Number: LITG 7036
- Call Number:
- Credits: 1 Non-classroom, or 2 Non-classroom for Associate Editors who commit to provide content to the Journal in the form of a case note, comment, or blog posts as specified in Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution
- Meets writing requirement? No; however, a request to award writing credit may be approved in the future.

IPCL JOURNAL: EDITORIAL BOARD (Managing Editor, Executive Editor, and Publications Editor only)

- Course Number: LITG 7036
- Call Number:
- Credits: 2 non-classroom
- Meets writing requirement? No

IPCL JOURNAL: EDITOR-IN-CHIEF (Editor-in-Chief only)

- Course Number: LITG 7036
- Call Number:
- Credits: 3 non-classroom
- Meets writing requirement? No

The following apply to all the classes above:

- Professor: Armstrong
- Enrollment: Intellectual Property and Computer Law Journal participants only; by permission of instructor.
- Primary Basis for Grade: High Pass / Pass / Low Pass / Fail
- Meets Seminar Requirement? No
- Meets Client Counseling Requirement? No
- Meeting Times: Will vary

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Intellectual Property and Computer Law Journal is dedicated to furthering knowledge associated with the research and practice of intellectual property law, computer law, and related fields concerning domestic and international media and telecommunications policy. The Journal will be published online. The Registrar will enroll students selected to participate in the necessary class through the registration system.