INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL DRAFTING
Fall 2015

Course Number: LITG 7015 001    Call Number: 000081

Professor: Mangan
Credits: 2 Classroom
Primary Basis for the Grade: Drafting projects; Letter grade
Prerequisites: none.

Enrollment: Open
Meets Seminar Requirement? No
Meets Writing Requirement? Yes
Meets Client Counseling Requirement? No

Meeting Times: Monday and Wednesday, 3:30-4:30
Location: 104

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This class provides a comprehensive introduction to drafting legal documents in the transactional context, with a heavy emphasis on contracts and internal corporate documents. Students will learn the basic concepts that guide contract drafting and how mastery of these concepts aid in managing risk in legal transactions. Students will complete a number of short drafting exercises and two (possibly three) graded drafting assignments.

Special Note:

This court is usually offered each semester.

Last updated: 4-2-15 cd