BakerHostetler Announces New Partner in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4, 2016 — BakerHostetler announced today that a lawyer in the firm’s Cincinnati office has been elected to the Partnership. Nationwide, 21 attorneys were elected to the Partnership.

New partner in the firm’s Cincinnati office:

- Patrick H. Haggerty is a member of the Litigation Group and concentrates his practice on privacy and data protection, including proactive compliance, incident response, and regulatory inquiries and litigation arising from data security and privacy incidents. He earned a J.D. in 2002 from the University of Cincinnati College of Law, where he received the Frank S. Rowley Scholarship, was named to the Dean's Honors List, and served as Editor-in-Chief of the University of Cincinnati Law Review. He earned a B.S. in Business and Economics in 1999 from the University of Kentucky.

###

About BakerHostetler

One of the nation’s leading law firms, BakerHostetler helps clients around the world to address their most complex and critical business and regulatory issues. With five core national practice groups – Business, Employment, Intellectual Property, Litigation, and Tax – the firm has more than 900 lawyers located in 14 offices coast to coast. Recognized for its role as court-appointed counsel to the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA) Trustee in the recovery of billions of dollars in principal lost in the Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Bernard L. Madoff, BakerHostetler is widely regarded as having one of the country’s top 10 tax practices, a nationally recognized litigation practice, an award-winning data privacy practice, and an industry-leading business practice. For more information, visit bakerlaw.com.