Required 2L Classes for 2017/18

Legal Ethics

In this class, students will develop a foundation on which to build an ethical legal practice and will learn the ideals of our profession.

There will be sections of this class offered in the fall and in the spring. 2Ls must sign up for one of these in the 2L year.

Client Counseling

In this class, students will continue to develop foundational lawyering skills including the basics of client interviewing and counseling.

Client Counseling must be taken in the 2L year. This class will be offered in both the fall and spring semesters as a short course. Students will be able to select the class offered in the legal dispute context or the transactional context.

Students who participate in the Ohio Innocence Project course sequence in the second year will have met the client counseling requirement without taking the Client Counseling course.

Students who participate in the Domestic Violence & Civil Protection Order Clinic – 2L Experience in the second year will have met the client counseling requirement without taking the Client Counseling course. This course is not always offered each year.
