

Welcome to Accounting for Lawyers. I look forward to meeting you Friday.
The TWEN site will be activated sometime early next week. In the meantime:

Class 1

1. Read Horngren text Chapter 1 Accounting: The Language of Business. You will find the text highly readable.

Look at the Starbucks insert

2. Handouts

a. Print Out a good copy and READ THOROUGHLY the attached PDF file:

Ch 01 revised: Stickney Weil, Chapter 1: Introduction to Business Activities and Overview of Financial Statements and Reporting Process.

You will find this material a bit more challenging, but very important.

b. Print Out the attached 3 page Word Outline to accompany my lecture on Chapter 1 Introduction to Business Activities and Overview

Note: The Horngren text is our principal text for the course. However, it is very important that you thoroughly read the handouts for the first three class sessions before coming to class.
